Cockle Bay School would like to acknowledge and thank New Zealand Breakers for your support of our major fundraising event for 2010. "CBS in Vogue" was held last Saturday night in front of a sold out crowd of 600, and showcased the talents of 152 of our students. Compeered by Wendy Myer this three hour extravaganza stared Cockle Bay students whom ranged in age from 5 – 10, and also had mixed abilities and confidence.

With the help of Kiri Whitford-Joynt, the Choreographer and Director the show, the children who participated in the show received coaching in fashion, dance, posture, and grew in confidence getting up on the stage in front of their peers and the school community. For many, it will have been a once in a life time opportunity to experience life as a model having their clothes, makeup and hair fashioned by professionals.

This hugely successful event captured the imagination of the wider School community. The Cockle Bay School management has been blown away by the support given by businesses and families who have all assisted us in ensuring a high level of education and technology for the school's 750 students.

During the evening we ran a loud cry auction, Silent Auction, raffle and mystery balloon draw. The merchandise donated by New Zealand Breakers helped in our efforts to raise $25,000 for the purchase of over 60 PC's and ensure the latest IT programs are used on a daily basis.

Please find enclosed a copy of the program that was issued to everyone who attended "CBS in Vogue" and a certificate of appreciation from Cockle Bay School.

Thank you for your support
